JUDGMENT (Per Sri B.Prakash Rao, J)

Heard both sides and at their request, the main appeal itself is taken up for disposal.

The appellant which is the corporation against whom a writ was issued at the instance of the respondent only for direction to consider his case for appointment to the post of Cleaner/Attender or Shramik or any other suitable post, filed this appeal.

Having considered the submissions made and on perusal of record, it is seen that the claim was sought to be made on behalf of the respondent and several objections have been raised on behalf of the appellants. However, only a direction was given for consideration of the case of the respondent and in respect thereof, there cannot be any grievance. It is always open for the appellants to consider the case of the respondent and pass orders in accordance with law.

Accordingly, the writ appeal is dismissed. No costs.
